St. Patrick's Temperance Society.

German hall was crowded last night, the chief attraction being the debate on the question: "Which Conduced More to the Promotion of Temperance, Oratory or Music." The disputants in behalf of oratory were Messrs.

J. F. Magnire and John Finn; those on the side or music were Messrs. Joseph Z. Rogers and J. J. Melbevitt. The question was ably discussed and submitted to the society for decusion upon the merits of the arguments. The society decided in favor of oratory, and the recritic was so recorded.

The very instructive and entertaining discussion was fifty closed with some earnest and forcible remarks by Mr. George W. Maher, addressed particularity to the young men present.
As a happy result of the meeting ten persons,
mostly young men, took the pledge of total abstinence. A fine musical and literary entertainment will be given by the Choral union

Considerable excitement was caused in Ju-diciary square Saturday by the falling of Thomas Beall, a bricklayer, from the scathold-ing on the new pension office building. He fell a distance of sixty-five feet, and it was at fell a distance of sixty-five feet, and it was at first thought he was killed. Dr. S. W. Bogan was sent for as the nearest physician, but that gentleman was not in his office, and a doctor who was passing made a hurried ex-amination and declared that no bones were broken. The injured man was removed to his residence, and a careful examination revealed the fact that his collar bone and also his right leg were broken. His whole body was badly bruised.

He Done With It.—A recent philosophical treatise says: "We can endure many an ache and pain, if it is soon over." Then let us have it over as soon as possible. The nain of neuralgis, for instance, or rheumatism, or the samy of various pains following in their train. Get a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters right away, and go to work on them. Mr. Jacob Barnes, Barnesville, Ohio, writes: "Brown's Iron Bitters relieved my wife of great nervous prostration, which was so severe that she had to keep her bed."

The New Bishop.

The Church of the Epiphany was densely crowded yesterday, it being communion Sunday and All Souls' Day, which brought out the faithful of the congregation, while large numbers were aitracted in the expectation that Rev. Dr. Faret, the newly-elected pishop of this diocese, would preach and some reference to the promotion would be made in the sermon. The curiously inclined, were disappointed, for Dr. Paret issuffering from inflamed eyes and was forbiden by his physicians to venture out. The services at the church were conducted by Rev. Irving McElroy, assistant minister of the parish.

The only men who don't get out of patients in this weather—the doctors. The only patients who get out of doctors are those who use St. Jacobs Oil, the great pain-reliever.
